

Job Title: Sr Manager: Carbon Programme
Location	Sector- 132, NOIDA (opposite Jaypee Hospital), Uttar Pradesh
Department	Climate Change	Employment Type	Regular and Full Time
Purpose of Job	This position is a part of the climate change department, with the individual being responsible for continuing with the development of the organization's flagship initiative; the Carbon Registry (CR-I) mechanism. CR-I shall be a viable, scalable platform for facilitating: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> i. submission, registration and verification/certification of GHG mitigation projects ii. issuance, trading and tracking of the resulting carbon credits and iii. submission, approval and listing of project-based methodologies
Essential Qualifications	A recognised university degree minimum Graduate in the domain of either climate change, sustainability, energy and environment.
Experience	8-10 years of experience in handling GHG projects pertaining to internationally recognised GHG standards/programmes such as ISO 14064: part 2, CDM, VCS, GS, ACR etc., either as a consultant and/or a validator/verifier.
Competencies	The ideal candidate shall have the following competencies: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Conversant with the concept of climate change mitigation including familiarity with its key strategies, technologies and measures. • Possesses deep understanding of the overall functioning of key GHG programmes mentioned above, including regulatory framework (established rules, requirements, procedures and guidelines) and other structural and design elements. • A deep personal commitment, passion and keen understanding of key international climate change agreements like Kyoto Protocol, Paris Agreement etc., including awareness of relevant provisions within them for development of market-based GHG mitigation mechanisms. • Insight into India's NDCs, CORSIA, MARPOL • Excellent computer skills using Microsoft Office Suite, including Excel and PowerPoint • Very strong communication skills written, oral and presentation including demonstrated networking abilities • Superior presentation skills are necessary. • Exceptional interpersonal skills and ability to collaborate and work with colleagues • Capable of exercising independent judgment and flexibility • Excellent organizational, research and project management skills with a high level of attention to detail and accuracy • Strategic insight and creativity with the ability to conceptualize and analyse new ideas.

Key responsibilities	The key responsibilities of the individual shall include: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Continuation of the development of an effective GHG programme (known as CR-I) that can contribute to more ambitious climate mitigation targets. • Tracking policy movement in relevant domains and identify potential business opportunities across the globe. • Monitoring research opportunities, announcements, and donor trends, and further maintain accurate information in pipeline database. • Building and growing a network of professional business contacts - clients, consultant companies and individual experts to identify potential partnerships. • Oversight of all aspects of project management including project planning, monitoring, reporting, writing, research and documentation. He/she shall be responsible for overall quality of delivery. • Managing project team(s) to ensure seamless and high-quality delivery. • Identification, organisation and planning of meetings with relevant stakeholders based on needs of the programme.
Remuneration	Salary is not a constraint for the right candidate.
Interested candidates are requested to submit their resume and cover letter to the email id provided as under at the earliest with the subject of the email as “Carbon Program NCCF”. Female candidates are encouraged to apply. Email at: work@nccf.in	